1	Project title Where and when the project happened in Hertfordshire	'Going Down the Village' Ongoing Reminiscence Project in Elstree and Borehamwood
2	Describe your project briefly.	Our project intends to encourage the over sixties, to share their memories, of what was the village, and is now a town. Many of our visitors fall into the 'socially isolated' category, and we aim to provide an opportunity, for them to engage with as many other people as possible.
3	What were the aims of your project?	Our senior citizens hold a treasure trove of memories. By encouraging them to share these with others, and the museum, we bring these public and sometimes personal memories, into the open.
4	What happened as a result of your project?	As a result of our project, many 'socially isolated' people have made contact with others.
5	What evidence did you produce to show your project's impact?	Photographs
6	What 2 tips would you offer to someone else running a similar project?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Do not underestimate your senior citizens! • Don't assume confusion equals dementia
