

DAY 6

YOU ARE POETRY

This poetry challenge is set by Sophie Symington, a teacher from Birmingham who's finding fun and engaging ways to support homeschooling. Today - you are poetry!

Do

Make a Kenning Poem about you. A Kenning is a pair of words that describes something without calling it by its name. A Kenning poem uses a list of Kennings to describe something in an interesting way, like this one about snow:

Cloud confetti
Land icing
Field blanket
Solid rain

Make a Kenning poem about you. You might be a Picture drawer, Cake maker, Smile spreader, Hug giver, Goal scorer, Friend maker...

If you have more time...

Try writing a Kenning poem about something else. The sun, the ocean, a particular animal... can someone else guess what it's about?

Think

If someone heard your poem, how would they guess it was about you?

Are we only defined by the things we have and the things we like or do?
How else are we defined?

Share

Share your work in a way that suits you - online, or offline.

Search #CreateToConnect to see what others are up to.

Resources

If you want to photograph your found textures you'll need a phone or camera.
